

Joanna Bresee

Creator of delightful experiences

---

Education

Master of Human Computer Interaction
Carnegie Mellon University. GPA: 4.0 2009

Bachelor of Humanities and Arts in Anthropology and Art with an additional major in Human Computer Interaction
Carnegie Mellon University. GPA: 3.87 2004–2009

Skills

Wireframing
Storyboarding
Personas and Scenarios
Prototyping
Think Aloud Studies
Contextual Inquiry

---

Experience

User Experience Design Consultant present
Matterport, Mountain View
Designed iPad application to explore immersive 3D models and prototype renovations to interior spaces.

User Experience Designer 2011–2013
Microsoft, Mountain View
Designed the chat and calendar applications for Outlook.com, which has over 400 million users. Promoted craftsmanship by documenting design patterns and partnering closely with developers.

Interaction Designer 2010–2011
NASA Ames Research Center, Mountain View Designed web application to help NASA crew members track mission milestones. Led the design process to create software for a lunar mission field test.

---

Publications

Bresee, J. “Visualizing Online Privacy Policies to Assist Consumer Understanding.” Thought Undergraduate Research
Journal. 2009

Kelley, P., Cesca, L., Bresee, J., Cranor, L., “Standardizing
Privacy Notices: An Online Study of the Nutrition Label Approach.” CHI. 2010

---

Contact

joannabresee@gmail.com
650-605-3052
3753 Cesar Chavez
San Francisco, CA 94110
joannabresee.com